“I want to see increasingly the TVET sector becoming a confident, able and very visible part of the skills institutions in South Africa. I want you to stop being shy cousins and to be very visible leaders in skills development in South Africa.”

“I want to make TVET colleges a very attractive option for young people and I want even the brightest young people to say, “That’s where I want to go.”

Naledi Pandor

Former Higher Education and Training Minister Naledi Pandor has challenged Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges to become part of the critical drive for skills development in South Africa.
